1. SCHOOL PROFILE:
Williamstown High School caters for more than 1400 students from Years 7 to 12. It is situated on two campuses that are a ten minute walk apart. The middle years campus, Years 7 to 9, is on the site of the former Point Gellibrand Girls’ Secondary College, in Bayview Street, Williamstown. Williamstown High School merged with the girls’ college in 2000 and a $13 million program saw the campus buildings and grounds rebuilt on award-winning environmentally sustainable designs. The proximity of the innovative middle year’s campus to Port Phillip Bay and the unique Jawbone Marine Sanctuary has enabled the school to develop an environmental curriculum, including marine studies. The senior campus, Years 10 to 12, is at Pasco Street housed in several heritage buildings, including the original 1867 grammar school block.

A Williamstown High School education provides a dynamic learning culture that promotes integrity, innovation and the individual. As a school community we value:
- Excellence and creativity in our achievements and ambitions.
- Integrity and honesty in our actions and relationships.
- Diversity in our curriculum, in each other and in our community.
- Strong and open communication between our school and our homes, and between our teachers, our students and our families.
- A commitment to social justice and a passion to protect and improve our environment and our community.

The school offers three streams: general co-educational entry, a Select Entry Accelerated Learning program that offers places to 25 students based on an entrance test and interview and a girls-only stream of 50 places that honours the traditions of Point Gellibrand Girls’ Secondary College in years 7 to 9. The school also offers an Accelerated Sports program, an excellent music program, strong visual and performing arts program, and an exceptional LOTE program that encapsulates two sibling school arrangements.

At the senior campus, a wide range of VCE, VET and VCAL studies are offered. The school’s study scores and destination data reflect outstanding successes and continual improvement. The dedicated learning environment and a flexible curriculum allow students to complete VCE/VET studies in Year 10. Year 11 students who are ready to meet the challenge of VCE are encouraged to undertake a unit 3/4 study. The AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) program at Year 10 to 12 supports middle band students who have the desire to go on with tertiary study and the willingness to work hard.

Williamstown enjoys a strong sense of community, working together to develop supportive and strong home school partnerships, depth in our extracurricular activities, a flourishing student leadership program and outstanding performances in the arts, debating, cultural, sporting and artistic achievement. We encourage the highest standards of our students in their diverse pursuits for personal excellence.
2. WHOLE SCHOOL PREVENTION PROGRAM:

As a learning community, Williamstown High School values and supports the learning, engagement and wellbeing of our entire school community and prides itself on implementing whole school initiatives that contribute to, strengthen and reinvigorate the school’s historical commitment to student achievement. The school is committed to fostering a positive, productive and pedagogically engaging school culture through embedded School Wide Positive Behaviour Support (SWPBS). SWPBS is the framework that underpins and influences all actions connected with student engagement and wellbeing at Williamstown High School. SWPBS provides educational leaders with a school improvement framework for ensuring the learning environment and school culture is focused on creating positive relationships, outcomes and engagement for all.

Through implementing preventive, positive and proactive programs we ensure that the diverse student body is provided with multiple opportunities to actively contribute to the creation of a stimulating, purposeful and challenging educational experience. Fostering student voice and promoting student leadership are areas of focus for the school. Our extensive engagement and wellbeing related policies assist in ensuring early preventative supports are implemented and a wide range of strategies aimed at catering for all learners are woven into the educational experience for our students.

Our school values and understands the need for consistent review of programs and initiatives. The school is determined to consistently and continually consider how to provide innovative, best practice learning experiences and SWPBS plays a key role in building the inherent learning capabilities of our students. SWPBS focuses on data and inquiry to drive continuous improvement in the school’s engagement and wellbeing processes. We work towards ensuring that every student at Williamstown High School is awarded a dynamic learning culture that promotes integrity, innovation and the individual.
3. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

Every member of the school community has a right to fully participate in an educational environment that is safe, supportive and inclusive. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and dignity.

The rights and responsibilities of all members of the Williamstown High School community take into account the following legislation:

- The Equal Opportunity Act (2010)
- The Disability Discrimination Act (1992)

Equal Opportunity Act

The Equal Opportunity Act 2010 provides protections from discrimination in public life in Victoria. It provides avenues for people to resolve discrimination disputes and outlines the Commission’s role in helping government, business and the community to identify and eliminate discrimination. Under the Equal Opportunity Act 2010, it is against the law to discriminate against a person on the basis of:

- Age
- Breastfeeding
- Marital Status
- Marital status
- Political belief or activity
- Religious belief or activity
- Disability
- Industrial activity
- Parental status
- Pregnancy
- Sex
- Employment activity
- Expunged homosexual conviction
- Gender identity
- Lawful sexual activity
- Physical features
- Race (including colour, nationality, ethnicity and ethnic origin)
- Sexual orientation
- Personal association with someone who has, or is assumed to have, any of these personal characteristics.

It is also against the law to sexually harass someone.

The Equal Opportunity Act 2010 covers discrimination in employment, education, accommodation, clubs, sport, goods and services, land sales and transfers, and local government, as well as sexual harassment.

The Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act

Williamstown High School acknowledges and adheres to the Charter of Human Rights. The Charter sets out a list of 20 rights that reflect the following four basic principles:

- Freedom
- Equality
- Respect
- Dignity

The Charter outlines a vision of human rights for all Victorians. The charter affirms that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights. While the charter demands equality for all, it also emphasises the value of difference. The charter requires public authorities, including government schools and their employees, to act compatibly with human rights and to consider human rights when making decisions and delivering services.

- The right not to be discriminated against
- The right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief
- The right to privacy and reputation
- Cultural Rights

It is important to understand that with human rights comes a responsibility to respect other human rights. All DET employees must act compatibly with the Charter and give proper consideration to human rights when making decisions.

The Disability Discrimination Act

The Disability Standards for Education Act 2005 clarify and make more explicit the obligations on schools and the rights of students under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992. The standards cover enrolment, participation, curriculum development, student support services, and harassment and victimisation.

An education provider must make ‘reasonable adjustments’ to accommodate a student with disability. An adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist a student with disability to participate in education and training on the same basis as other students. An adjustment is reasonable if it does this while taking into account the student’s learning needs and balancing the interests of all parties affected, including those of the student with the disability, the education provider, staff and other students.
In determining whether an adjustment is reasonable, an education provider should take into account information about:

- The nature of the student’s disability
- Their preferred adjustment
- Any adjustments that have been provided previously
- Any recommended or alternative adjustments

This information might come from the student, an associate of the student, independent experts, or a combination of these people.

An education provider should ensure that the student, or an associate of the student, has timely information about the processes for determining whether the proposed adjustment would cause unjustifiable hardship to the provider. The provider should also ensure that these processes maintain the dignity, respect, privacy and confidentiality of the student and the associates of the student, consistent with the rights of the rest of the community.

The provider may consider all likely costs and benefits, both direct and indirect, for the provider, the student and any associates of the student, and any other persons in the learning or wider community, including:

- Costs associated with additional staffing, providing special resources or modifying the curriculum.
- Costs resulting from the student’s participation in the learning environment, including any adverse impact on learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers.
- Benefits of the student's participation in the learning environment, including positive learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers, and any financial incentives, such as subsidies or grants, available to the provider if the student participates.

The DDA and the Education Standards do not require changes to be made if this would impose unjustifiable hardship to a person or organisation.

Statement of Commitment to Child Safety

Williamston High School is committed to safety and wellbeing of all children and young people. This will be the primary focus of our care and decision-making. In its planning, decision-making and operations Williamstown High School will:

- Take a preventative, proactive and participatory approach to child safety.
- Value and empower children to participate in decisions which affect their lives.
- Foster a culture of openness that supports all persons to safely disclose risks of harm to children.
- Respect diversity in cultures and child rearing practices while keeping child safety paramount.
- Provide written guidance on appropriate conduct and behavior towards children.
- Engage only the most suitable people to work with children and have high quality staff and professional development.
- Ensure children know who to talk with if they are worried or are feeling unsafe, and that they are comfortable and encouraged to raise such issues.
- Report suspected abuse, neglect or mistreatment promptly to the appropriate authorities.
- Share information appropriately and lawfully with other organisations where the safety and wellbeing of children is at risk.
- Value the input of and communicate regularly with families and carers.

Bullying Prevention Policy

Every person in our school community; students, teachers and other staff, families and members of the local community has the right to feel safe and have a sense of belonging. A person who bullies another is denying them that right. The school will take all the necessary steps to ensure every person’s right to feel safe is delivered. The involvement and commitment of the whole school community is required to achieve a culture in which safe and respectful schools are everyone’s concern and responsibility.

Context

Bullying is when a person or a group of people deliberately upset or hurt another person or damage their property, reputation or social acceptance in a repeated manner over time. There is an imbalance of power in incidents of bullying with the bully or bullies having more power at the time due to age, size, status or other reasons.
Bullying may occur because of perceived differences including but not limited to culture, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, ability or disability, religion, body size and physical appearance, age, economic status or the holding or expression of particular personal or political views. Bullying may be motivated by jealousy, distrust, fear, misunderstanding or lack of knowledge. It can continue over time and is often hidden from adults. It can continue overtime, is often hidden from adults and will probably continue if no action is taken.

Williamstown High School provides specific advice to students about cyber-safe behaviours that help prevent cyberbullying. As such, this policy works in conjunction with the WHS Student Engagement and Wellbeing Policy and WHS Acceptable Use Agreement (an agreement which requires students and families to agree to positive online behaviours designed to reduce and eliminate cyberbullying).

When people are bullied or harassed some effects might be anger, embarrassment, fear and humiliation, loss of self-confidence and reduced function and potential. Bullying and harassment will be addressed, individual differences will be respected and students and staff will be enabled and supported in their pursuit of learning and teaching.

4. SHARED EXPECTATIONS:
Williamstown High School shares high expectations for the whole school community. We have developed a set of key expectations that create and maintain a positive and safe learning environment that maximise individual academic, emotional and social growth. The key behaviour expectations of: Be a Learner, Be Respectful and Be Safe encompass the school’s core values, were developed in collaboration with the school community, are explicitly taught across years 7 to 12 and reinforced by all school community members. To ensure that students at Williamstown High School receive what they need to achieve successful outcomes, we employ the SWPBS continuum of support.

School (Principals, Teachers and Educational Support Staff) Expectations
Schools have a responsibility to provide an educational environment that ensures that all students are valued and cared for, feel they are part of the school, and can engage effectively in their learning and experience success.

School staff will:
- Develop positive and meaningful relationships with families that promote engagement, wellbeing and successful outcomes.
- Uphold and explicitly teach the school values and key behaviours expectation (identified in the behaviour matrix).
- Develop inclusive teaching practices that include provisions of appropriate, relevant and challenging curriculum that gives students the opportunity to experience success in their learning.
- Recognise and celebrate student success and achievement within the school and in the wider community.
- Build community partnerships which engage families and the community in ways that support and provide family access to appropriate student services.
- Provide the provision of broad educational opportunities that allow and encourages students to explore pathways to success as responsible members of the global community.
- Address and celebrate diversity on a local, national and global level.

Parents/ Guardians and Carers Expectations
Parents/ Guardians and carers can be expected to promote positive educational outcomes for their children by taking an active interest in their child’s educational progress.

Parents / Guardians and Carers will:
- Model and support the explicit teaching of the school’s values and key behaviour expectations.
- Actively support their child’s engagement in the school environment.
- Engage and work effectively with the school, communicate clearly regarding their child’s learning and wellbeing needs and work with the school to promote positive educational outcomes for them.
- Support their children and ensure they attend school regularly and promote the value of education to their student.
- Support the school in maintaining a safe and respectful learning environment for all students.
- Work with students in the use of the SWPBS reflective conversation (when relevant).
- Work with the school to educate young people to live in a diverse world by promoting an understanding and appreciation of diversity in the school, community and at home.
Student Expectations
As students’ progress through school they need to be encouraged and supported to take greater responsibility for their own learning and participation as members of the whole school community. This involves developing as individual learners who increasingly manage their own learning and growth by setting goals and managing resources to achieve these goals.

Students will:
- With support by their parents/guardians and carers participate fully in the educational program and attend regularly.
- Take responsibility for their own learning and participate as a member of the whole school community.
- Actively contribute to creating a positive learning environment by upholding the school’s key behaviour expectations, demonstrating and encouraging safe and inclusive behaviours.
- Demonstrate respect for the rights of others, including their right to learn.

SWPBS Reflective Conversations (Restorative Practices)
Williamstown High School is committed to the application of SWPBS reflective conversations (Restorative Practices). Our reflective conversations inform a positive and formative approach to student engagement and wellbeing (including behaviour management). Its aim is to promote resilience in the one harmed and the one causing harm. The reflective conversation guides staff to support students to understand what they have done, give them ownership of their actions, recognise the impact of their actions on others, consider the most desirable way to reconcile and resolve conflict with others and be engaged and empowered through the process.

Restorative Practices:
- Are underpinned by student learning and facilitate an environment of safety, trust and connectedness (Bond et al. 2001, Fuller 1999).
- Promote awareness of others, responsibility and empathy (Hopkins 2002).
- Involve direct and voluntary participation of those affected by misconduct in its resolution (Braithwaite 2001b).
- Promote relationship management rather than behaviour management (Cameron & Thorsborne 2001).
- Are systematic, not situational (Armstrong 2004).
- Are concerned with establishing or re-establishing social equality in relationships; that is, relationships in which each person’s rights to equal dignity, concern and respect are satisfied (Morrison 2002).
5. SCHOOL’S ACTIONS AND CONSEQUENCES:

Student engagement, regular attendance and positive behaviours will be supported through a relationship based on School Wide Positive Behaviour Support practices throughout the whole school, including:

- Establishing predictable, safe and respectful school environments.
- Ensuring student participation in the development of whole school expectations as clearly identified in the behaviour matrix.
- Providing personalised learning programs where appropriate for individual students.
- Acknowledging and recognising the positive behaviours of all students.
- Empowering students by creating multiple opportunities for them to take responsibility and be involved in decision making.
- Providing safe physical environments that foster positive behaviours and effective engagement in learning.

Inappropriate behaviours, including irregular attendance, will be responded to through a staged response, that has a preventative, early intervention and data based focus, including:

- Understanding the student’s background and needs.
- Ensuring a clear understanding of key expectations by students, parents/ guardians, carers and teachers exists.
- Providing explicit reteaching opportunities to students who exhibit second and first tier behaviours.
- Engaging, involving and supporting parents / guardians and carers to promote positive educational outcomes for their child.
- Convening student support group meetings (SSG) to develop individualised and flexible support plans which may include scaffolding the student’s learning program and/or learning, behaviour or attendance plans.
- Actively involve the student well-being coordinator, careers counsellor and managed individual pathways coordinator.
- Linking students and families with community support, health agencies, mentoring opportunities and/or counselling.

Discipline procedures – suspension and expulsion

A student may only be excluded from school in situations where all other measures have been implemented without success or where an immediate suspension is the only appropriate course of action in response to the student’s behaviour.

The Staged Interventions used prior to suspension include:

- A range of positive behaviour interventions.
- Learning plans, behaviour support plans and return to school plans.
- Parent/ guardians and carers contact through email, telephone conversations and meetings.
- Referral to student wellbeing coordinator, leading teachers, assistant principals and DET personnel.
- Referral to school based positive behaviours, preventative and intervention wellbeing programs.
- Use of Compass to monitor and track students at risk in order to provide appropriate early intervention.
- Convening of a Student Support Group (SSG) and SSG meetings (see the ‘DET Student Engagement and Inclusion Guidance Information’ for the process).

When considering suspension or expulsion, the student engagement and wellbeing team at Williamstown High School follow the procedures and process outlined and published by DET in the Student Engagement and Inclusion Guidance 2014.

The Education Training and Reform Act (2006) prohibits the use of corporal punishment in any Victorian Government school. Corporal punishment must not be used at Williamstown High School under any circumstance.
