

Mobile Phone Policy

Williamstown High School

Redeveloped in 2019 in line with DET requirements

Williamstown High School Mobile Phone

PURPOSE

To explain to our school community the Department's and Williamstown High School policy requirements and expectations relating to students using mobile phones and other personal mobile devices] during school hours.

SCOPE

This policy applies to:

1. All students at Williamstown High School and, students' personal mobile phones and other personal mobile devices brought onto school premises during school hours, including recess and lunchtime.

DEFINITIONS

A mobile phone is a telephone with access to a cellular (telecommunication) system, with or without a physical connection to a network. "For the purpose of this policy, "mobile phone" refers to mobile phones and any device that may connect to or have a similar functionality to a mobile phone such as smart watches."

POLICY

Williamstown High School understands that students may bring a personal mobile phone to school, particularly if they are travelling independently to and from school.

At Williamstown High School

- Students who choose to bring mobile phones to school must have them switched off and securely stored in their lockers during school hours.
- Exceptions to this policy may be applied if certain conditions are met (see below for further information)
- When emergencies occur, parents and guardians should reach their child by calling the school's office.

Personal mobile phone use

In accordance with the Department's Mobile Phones Policy issued by the Minister for Education, personal mobile phones must not be used at Williamstown High School during school hours, including lunchtime and recess, unless an exception has been granted.

Where a student has been granted an exception, the student must use their mobile phone for the purpose for which the exception was granted, and in a safe, ethical and responsible manner.

Secure storage

Mobile phones and devices owned by students at Williamstown High School are considered valuable items and are brought to school at the owner's (student's or parent and guardians) risk. Students are encouraged not to bring a mobile phone to school unless there is a compelling reason to do so. Please note that Williamstown High School does not have accident insurance for accidental property damage or theft. Students and their parents and guardians are encouraged to obtain appropriate insurance for valuable items. Refer to the Personal Accident and Insurance Policy on our school website.

Where students bring a mobile phone to school, Williamstown High School will provide secure storage, in the form of a student locker and school approved combination lock. Secure storage is storage that cannot be readily accessed by those without permission to do so.

Enforcement

Students who use their personal mobile phones inappropriately at Williamstown High School may be issued with consequences consistent with our school's existing Student Engagement and Inclusion Policy.

At Williamstown High School inappropriate use of mobile phones is any use during school hours, unless an exception has been granted, and particularly use of a mobile phone:

- in any way that disrupts the learning of others
- to send inappropriate, harassing or threatening messages or phone calls
- to engage in inappropriate social media use including cyber bullying
- to capture video or images of people, including students, teachers and members of the school community without their permission
- to capture video or images in the school toilets, changing rooms, swimming pools and gyms
- during exams and assessments

Exceptions

Exceptions to the policy:

- may be applied during school hours if certain conditions are met, specifically,
 - Health and wellbeing-related exceptions; and
 - Exceptions related to managing risk when students are offsite.
- can be granted by the principal, or by the teacher for that class, in accordance with the Department's Mobile Phones Policy.

The three categories of exceptions allowed under the Department's Mobile Phones Policy are:

1. Learning-related exceptions

Specific exception	Documentation
For specific learning activities (class-based exception)	Unit of work, learning sequence
For students for whom a reasonable adjustment to a learning program is needed because of a disability or learning difficulty	Individual Learning Plan, Individual Education Plan

2. Health and wellbeing-related exceptions

Specific exception	Documentation
Students with a health condition	Student Health Support Plan
Students who are Young Carers	A localised student record

3. Exceptions related to managing risk when students are offsite

Specific exception	Documentation
Travelling to and from excursions	Risk assessment planning documentation
Students on excursions and camps	Risk assessment planning documentation
When students are offsite (not on school grounds) and unsupervised with parental permission	Risk assessment planning documentation
Students with a dual enrolment or who need to undertake intercampus travel	Risk assessment planning documentation

Where an exception is granted, the student can only use the mobile phone for the purpose for which it was granted.

Camps, excursions and extracurricular activities

Williamstown High School will provide students and their parents and guardians with information about items that can or cannot be brought to camps, excursions, special activities and events, including personal mobile phones.
